WHAT THE MAN FROM ALBEMARLE SAID:
"I have enjoyed this immense store of yours just as much, and probably more, than the Virginia State Fair." So spoke a prominent man from Albemarle county the other day. This statement was entirely unsolicited, and it made us feel fine. This establishment is an institution—not merely a commercial trading post—but an institution of the city, State and South. An establishment for all the people all the time. A store where you can get what you want and know you are getting quality.

Colossal Book Sale---Editions de Luxe

About ONE-FOURTH Publishers' Prices. Long-looked-for Sensational Book Sale To-Morrow.

This sale is the culmination of well-known panic conditions in the subscription book trade. Many publishing failures are known to the public, but bankers and others on the inside understand the great financial difficulties causing this forced sale. At the inflated subscription prices about $6,000,000 worth of Fine de Luxe Editions were recently thrown upon the market by publishers, printers and binders, who were compelled to unload at any price.

A Subscription Publisher's Clearing House was formed to distribute the enormous stocks among leading houses in large cities.

We bought heavily, securing the entire allotment for this city, and offer these superb editions exclusively here.

All the best sets advertised widely in magazines and sold by agents at high prices you'll find right here at astonishing bargain prices.

You can now get three or four magnificent sets for the subscription price of one.

Select the favorite authors you want and enjoy the possession of a fine private library—a creditable ornament to your home and a good investment in every way.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 15.—William M. Dupree, guard at the State Penitentiary, was committed to Wake county jail this evening, without bail, to answer, at the January term of Criminal Court, the charge of killing George Murphy, the convict from Salisbury, who had almost completed a one-year sentence for conspiracy.

The commitment was by Coroner G. A. Seapark, on the strength of a verdict by the coroner's jury, rendered this evening, that "George Murphy came to his death after an encounter with William Dupree, in which Murphy was struck by Dupree, as evidenced by a bruise on the forehead, and, according to the evidence heard by the jury, we recommend that William Dupree be held subject to the action of the grand jury at the January, 1910, term of Wake Superior Court."

It is expected that Dupree will later apply through counsel to some justice of the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus in effort to secure bail.

While there is something new being invented and perfected every day in the electrical world, there is something new still coming. Among the latest improvements is the toaster stove and the handy little stove sold by the Virginia Railway and Power Company in its offices, Seventh and Main Streets.

These are invaluable in homes where electricity can be had—Adv.

The debate was conducted in good speaking.

Mr. Tolby opened in thirty minutes; Colonel Saunders followed in the same length of time. Mr. Tolby rejoined in fifteen minutes and Colonel Saunders closed the debate in fifteen minutes.

Mr. Tolby fully discussed Judge Mann's record, and, following the beaten path of other spell-binders of his party, dwelt at considerable length upon the extravagance of the past Democratic State administrations.

Colonel Saunders discussed both national and State issues, touching lightly on the tariff question and reviewing the record of wastefulness of the administrations of McKinley and Roosevelt, and without the slightest friction.

It had been expected by some that Captain Kent would speak, but he was unable to do so on account of his throat trouble, which has necessitated his taking a rest from public speaking.

praising people undertake, and not the least of Virginia's successful fairs may be looked for next week, commencing Wednesday and continuing through Friday.

DEBATE IN KING AND QUEEN.

Good Crowd Hears Saunders and Tolby at the Court House.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STEVENSVILLE, VA., October 15.—A large crowd attended King and Queen court yesterday, the occasion being marked by a joint discussion between Mr. Tolby, of Richmond, representing the Republicans, and Colonel J. R. Saunders, of Middlesex, representing the Democrats.

It had been expected by some that Captain Kent would speak, but he was unable to do so on account of his throat trouble, which has necessitated his taking a rest from public speaking.

Distillery Bottled Goods Best

Everybody knows that whiskey bottled in the distillery under the eagle eyes of the government inspectors is always absolutely pure. The eight-year-old "Virginia Corn" sold by the Richmond Distilling Company, is bottled in the distillery where it is made. Write for a four-quart package, Box 675, Richmond, and get the proof—Adv.

The two chief attractions will be the races and the tournament, though the corn and other agricultural exhibits will be of no small interest. The Norfolk and Western Railway Company will make an elaborate exhibit of the various resources along its line, and the merchants locally and from away will advertise their goods and wares through the medium of the fair.

Large cash prizes and other awards are to go to tournament riders, and already Major John H. Martin, chief marshal, announces many entrances for the contest.

Local horses and horses from distant places will compete for the liberal purses each day of the fair. The grand track is a new one, and is provided with the best half-mile courses in the State. The town will put on a gala appearance, all merchants entering into the spirit of the occasion, and will decorate their buildings.

Special rates and special trains will bring large crowds from the lines of both the Norfolk and Western and the Tidewater and Western Railways. Farmville fails at nothing, her enter-
